Hi everyone!
I was planning on waiting until the semester was over to continue this, but I saw people were excited about this and their excitement made me excited, so I decided to put out Ch. 1!

Let's see. I started at 6ish, and it's now 12:31, so it took me 6 hours!? @_@
I don't know when I'll be able to put out the next chapter.
But if I see people excited for the manhwa, it will in turn make me excited/guilty for not updating, and I might upload again hehe
